THIRD QUARTER 2015

VOLUME 35

NUMBER 3

THE OFFICIAL PUBLICATION OF THE SOUVENIR CARD COLLECTORS SOCIETY

(Back cover) Original tickets from the 1893 World's Columbian Exposition held in Chicago.

There seems to be a lot of intaglio material that has appeared on the market—mostly, the Internet—but in various auctions, as well. I will try to keep you posted—in these pages—of what I find, and I would appreciate it, if you find something of interest, that you would send me a scan to share with membership. (No, “Web Sights” was intended!)

I have included several items that I found recently and, in addition, some items from my own collection that I thought might be of interest. Regrettably, there is no way for me to share the feel of an intaglio print, but I hope you will at least appreciate the detail!

I am planning to go to NAEPEX again this year (about the time you receive this issue) and attend the Washington Chapter’s meeting. I wonder if there will be any material of interest in the bourse. I’ll provide a report in the next issue.

The verdict is still out on the question of our participation in the World Stamp Show, next year in New York City. I have received 2 votes for, 1 opposed, in addition to my own concern. The major problem, as I see it, is the manning of the booth/table for the duration of the show. The obvious candidates would be members of the Metro Chapter, but the Chapter seems to be in a state of flux.

As the title suggests, it is a “stamp” show, so it is very doubtful that the BEP will be involved, although, like Washington, some of the other security printers might be there. But, as we all know, the printing of intaglio material is NOT the priority of the USPS!

The last time the Society participated, 2006 (the show is every 10 years in the U.S.), it was in Washington, D.C.. Part of the outcome of that was that I was “elected” your President! I hope you have not come to rue that result!

Recently, I got some questions about “housing” their collection and, as I have often stated, I choose NOT to tell someone what to do. Instead, I offer my opinions/help on what I do/have tried to do with my own material, i.e., what has worked or not for me.

I was surprised to find that some store their cards in their original (opaque) envelopes, which is what I do with my duplicates. It seems to me that method limits, if not eliminates the enjoyment of seeing the beautiful work on the cards!

Personally, my interest is in intaglio work, whether a souvenir card or, simply a beautifully engraved item. If you are only interested in “souvenirs”, intaglio or not, that is not a problem for me! In my youth, my first interest was the “steel-engraved” cachets on the ARTCRAFT first day covers. They are still beautiful, but now are “worth” barely their original cost!

How about you? Would you like to share your experiences with the membership in these pages? As the author’s saying goes: “No experience necessary!”

The Auction in this issue contains quite a few items that are unique—several from the estate of Mary Halsall, a former BEP employee who was the liaison between the shows and the BEP involvement and, of course, the resultant souvenir cards produced. As a result, most of the items—a welcomed, gift-donation—are “one-of-a-kind” and, obviously, not easily found in the marketplace.

Enjoy the Summer!

RECENT AUCTIONS

William Kriebel

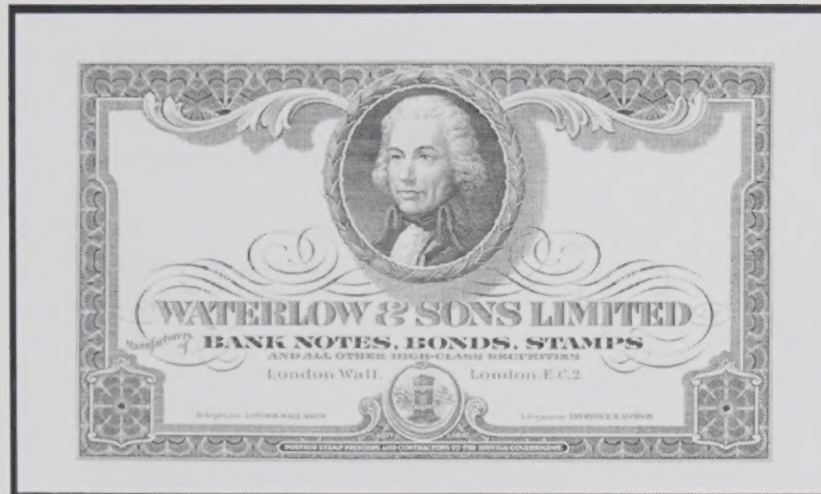

Archives International held their 23rd Auction on 10 March 2015. It included some interesting items and prices! (Prices include 18% buyer's premium.)\

832 A Bradbury-Wilkinson advertising piece, 1900s. It sold for $100.30. (right)

840 Waterlow & Sons advertisement item. It sold for $295.00. (below)

841 Waterlow & Sons, sold for $177.00. (below)

842 Another Waterlow & Sons, sold for $106.20.

843 Yet another Waterlow & Sons, both sides shown. Sold for $413.00. (above, right, second & third)

Then there were some ABNCo items. Two proofs for the World's Columbian Exposition tickets:

847 (Indian) sold for $560.50 (opposite), and 848 (Colombus) sold for $590.00.

850 A George Washington item brought $472.00 (opposite).

851 An ABNCO advertisement in Spanish brought $2,478.00! (opposite).

852 Then there was an item from Burton&Gurley, c1820s, which sold for $1,534.00 (above, right).

853 Fairman Draper and Underwood's 1826 sheet of vignettes (right) sold for $1,770.00.

This would certainly seem to indicate that there is a collecting interest, i.e., market for intaglio work!

854 An IPPU booklet from the 1952 convention went for $271.40.

874 An IPPU booklet from the 1946 Washington convention went for $224.30.

869 An ABNCo proof of the incredibly small engraving of the Declaration of Independence sold for $885.00 (top, next page).

Dutch Country Auctions, 20 March 2015, had a lot which included five engraved items: 3 tickets for the Worlds Columbian Exposition (Washington, Columbus, and Indian) and a ticket for the 1924 Democratic National Convention and one for the Pan American Exposition. The lot sold for $200.00.

Regency-Superior had one lot in their 29 March 2015 auction held at the St. Louis Stamp Expo:

"2951 1968-95 Bureau & Show Card Collection, Est. $300-400. Hundreds of USPS or Bureau produced philatelic and numismatic souvenir cards in original envelopes. Additional small collection in two-volume White Ace Bureau Souvenir Cards album. Most marked with either Scott or Brookman catalog number. Lacks early expensive ones, but does have Scott #SC7 and NSC1. Also a few engravings from BEP and 1973 Plate Printers Union sheet (Brookman F1973B x 5). Overall very fine with light duplication." It realized $500.00.

[I would like to continue to keep the membership informed about the availability and/or sales of souvenir cards and intaglio material, so that you are aware of what is out there and what kind of prices ("values") are determined by the "marketplace" rather than a catalog listing. I, therefore, request your help—if you find something, not already listed in these pages, please share it with the membership. Thanks! Ed.]

Another lot (#325) of souvenir cards was described: "Collection abt (110) diff to 1999 incl gummed & ungummed Truck SC3, SC5, SIPEX miner, Numismatic card NSC 1-3 7 later incl 1993 (green) Mountain Scenes, 1994 (black) Centennial, 1995 (Blue) Centennial, B101 Spring Flowers, B117 (blue) State Shields, B141 (green) Eagle & others, a few show cancelled GenF-VF or better". Sold for $350.00.

What I was interested in was the use of both Scott numbers and those of our Society, suggesting that they have only access to only some of our numbers for "B" cards! NSC 1-3 are our B-2, 3 & 7. Interesting!

(Opposite); A slightly reduced copy of F 1983E, from NAPEX, printed by Union members at the show from the same ABNCo plate used to print the page in the 1977 ABNCo Annual Report (see p. 15), with added lathe work and embossed seal at the bottom. Original is 9.5"x12.5".

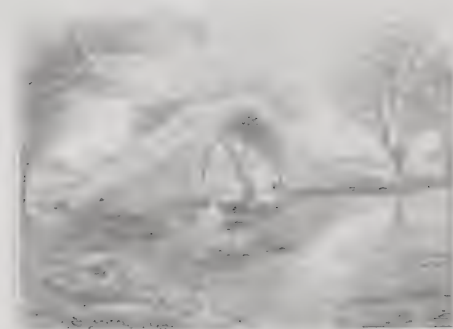

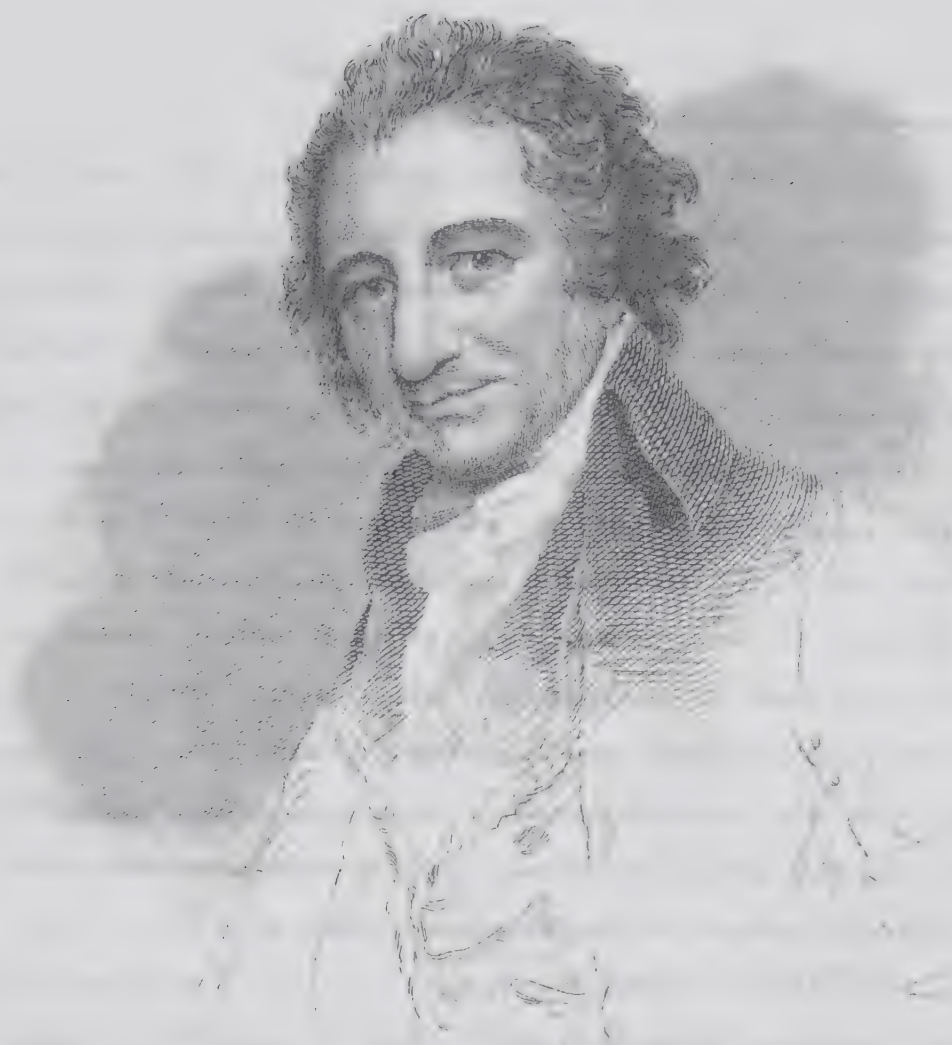

As I have mentioned before in these pages, now and again, material appears for sale that has been taken / cut from its original source. I plan to illustrate the originals here, taken from ABNCo's Annual Reports from 1972 through 1979 (less 1973). These are intaglio prints on translucent paper, and were either only a frontispiece, i.e., no print on the page at the back (as the first two—1972, opposite; 1974, below), or printed on the back sheet as well! I will follow these in chronological order, with the frontispiece on the left (this side), and the backpaper on the right. The 1975 prints (pp. 10-11) were double, i.e., Paine's image was printed on one page, with the Declaration on the following page. The backpage was preceded by the microscopic version of the Declaration, similar to that on page 6. If any member can add in other year's pages, please contact the Editor. Enjoy!

{The originals are 8.5"x11", so some of these are slightly reduced to fit!}

Engravings from the archives of American Bank Note Company, which are more than 100 years old, were used in the printing of this page. The art work in the center depicts the reading and signing of the Declaration of Independence.
